

Abram Hatch replaced Joseph S. Murdock as Presiding Bishop in December of 1867. He had been sent to Provo Valley by Brigham Young, and his arrival on

"William Lindsay, "A History of Wasatch County," op. cit., p. 8.

Stake Tabernacle

